

INFLATION MONITOR

A simplified version of inflation data for trade union negotiators.

George Mthethwa

APRIL 2025

The consumer price index rose to 2.8% in April 2025, from 2.7% in March.

Inflation is a sustained increase in the general level of prices for goods and services. It is measured as an annual percentage increase (e.g., April 2024 to April 2025). A declining rate of inflation indicates that prices are rising at a slower pace.

The annual headline inflation rate increased to 2,8% in April 2025 from 2,7% in March 2025. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) decreased by 0,3% month-on-month in April 2025.

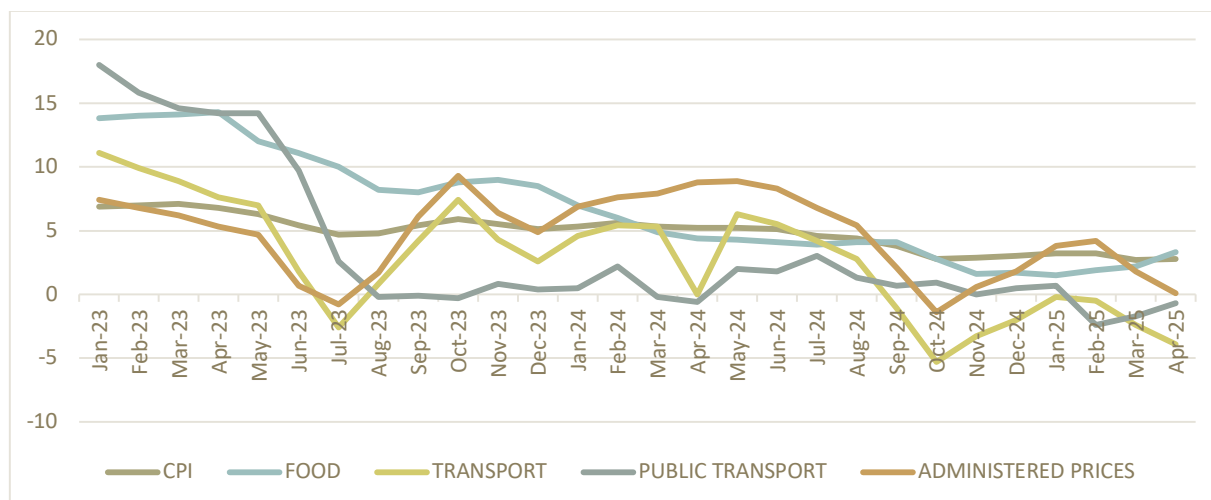

Food prices increased to 3,3% in April 2025 from 2,2% in March 2025. Transport inflation increased to -3,9% in April 2025 from -2,4% in March 2025. Public transport inflation decreased to -0,7% in April 2025 from -1,7% in March 2025. The administrator's price decreased to 0,1% in April 2025 from 1,8% in March 2025.

Statistics South Africa divides monthly household expenditure into 10 deciles. Expenditure in decile 10 was higher than expenditure in decile 1, indicating extreme inequality.

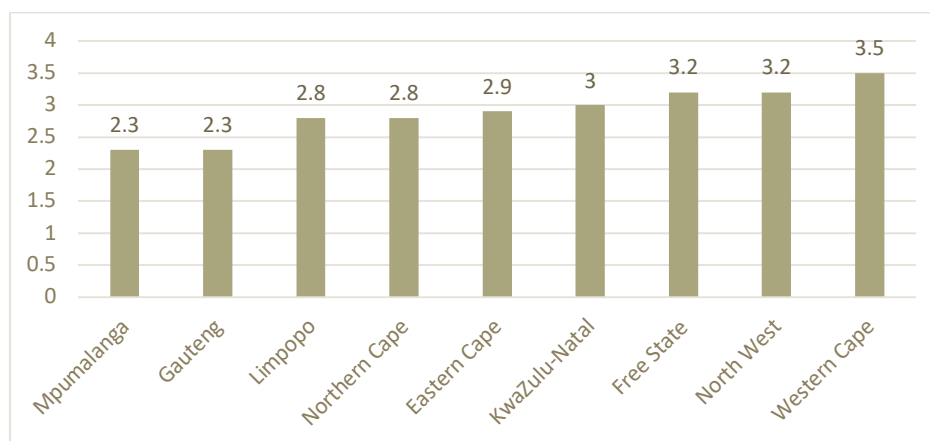

Table 2: Annualised inflation by expenditure group | April 2025

	Monthly expenditure	Inflation Rate April-25
Average annual CPI		2,8%
Decile 1	Up to R1 678 per month	4,3%
Decile 2	R1 678 up to R2 802 per month	3,9%

There is more than one inflation rate. Different groups, from the very poor to the rich, can experience different rates of inflation because they buy different things. The very low spending group (decile 1) experienced an inflation rate of 4.3%, which was higher than the headline Annualised inflation rate of 2,8%, while the very high spending group (decile 10) had an inflation rate of 2,6%, which was lower than the Annualised inflation rate of 2,8% in April 2025.

Mpumalanga (2,3%), Gauteng (2,3%), Limpopo (2,8%) and Northern Cape (2,8%) were the provinces with annual inflation rates lower than or equal to the headline rate. Eastern Cape (2,9%), KwaZulu-Natal (3%), Northern Cape (3%), Free State (3,2%), North-West (3,2%) and Western Cape (3,5%) were the provinces with annual inflation higher than headline inflation.

The consumer price index (CPI) is known as the headline inflation rate and is also called the official inflation rate. The monthly prices of over a thousand goods and services are used to calculate the CPI.

The food price index shows the increase in the price level of food only, each month. It is included in the overall CPI inflation.

The transport price index measures the increase in the price level of transport items in the basket of goods and services that make up the inflation index. It is included in overall CPI inflation.

An administered price: The price of a product deliberately fixed by a single producer or group of producers and/or any price that may be determined or influenced by the government, either directly or through one or more government agencies/institutions, without reference to market forces. Examples include school fees, telephone charges, electricity, trains, petrol/paraffin, mobile phone calls and public transport. This rate is part of the overall CPI inflation rate.

The May 2025 CPI figures are expected on 18 June 2025
